Flat 21, Shire House Lamb's Passage, London, EC1Y 8TE

Guide price £550,000

A well presented two double bedroom apartment situated on the third floor of this well located development. Accommodation comprises; two double bedroom, large living room, modern fully fitted kitchen, bathroom and lots of storage. Whitecross Street's name dates back to the days of King Henry V when the street was given a white cross in relief of the poor. There was also an arch of stone, under which a course of water ran towards Moor which is now called Moorfields.

Whitecross Street is one of London's oldest markets and dates back to the 17th Century. The Street is now super fashionable with eclectic shops, an amazing day time food market offering the most diverse culinary delights from around the world, a vibrant coffee culture as well as a Waitrose supermarket.
