10 Edmunds Walk

London

A beautifully appointed four bedroom detached family home, discreetly positioned within the highly regarded Area 12 of the prestigious Hampstead Garden Suburb. Set within an exclusive and peaceful cul-de-sac, yet mere moments from East Finchley Underground Station, this exceptional home combines timeless architectural charm with beautifully balanced family living, all adjacent to the heart of East Finchley.

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged and comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom and ensuite shower room, two WCs, an elegant reception room with direct access to a truly stunning award-winning south-facing garden, a separate dining room ideal for entertaining, a fully fitted kitchen.

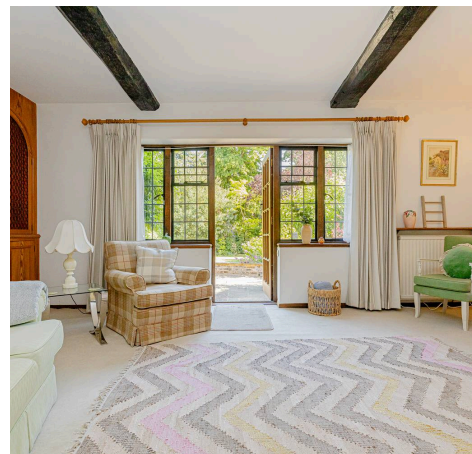

Edmunds Walk is one of the Suburb's most picturesque turnings, renowned for its tranquil, leafy setting and distinctive character homes. Together with the southern section of Deansway, the road forms a unique enclave of charming timber-framed houses originally designed by celebrated architect R.H. Williams of Finchley, giving the area an unmistakable sense of heritage and architectural significance.
